Comments Regarding Professor

Goncalo was amazing. Super understanding of student situations and had many engaging experiments to switch up lecture days up - one to where we earned a pizza party on him.

Comments Regarding Course Content

The course content was easy to follow and to learn. Interesting as well and never became overwhelming, especially because it was always tied to an experiment or in-class activity

Comments Regarding Professor

He is a good person who likes to help his students and enjoys teaching about the topic. He is always willing to answer questions that students may have.

Comments Regarding Course Content

Rather than being IT-focused, the course focuses on business concepts with some relation to IT. The concepts itself are not extremely difficult, but it is important to take good notes during his lectures because his slides are only a guide and most exam questions come from discussion.

Comments Regarding Professor

Professor Scott is very understanding and is great to talk to about logistics or off-topic ideas. Though the class can be hard, this was one of my favorites as an undergrad!

Comments Regarding Course Content

There is a lot of material to cover so the class can feel pretty busy. There is typically a homework assignment or case study due each week - with the exception of a few weeks.
