University of Illinois

Since its founding in 1867, the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign has earned a reputation as a world-class leader in research, teaching, and public engagement. The University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign community of students, scholars, and alumni is changing the world. With our land-grant heritage as a foundation, we pioneer innovative research that tackles global problems and expands the human experience. Our transformative learning experiences, in and out of the classroom, are designed to produce alumni who desire to make a significant, societal impact.

Gies College of Business

At Gies College of Business, we believe in thinking big and attaining excellence. That's because our College is filled with visionary leaders and innovators—people who push boundaries, who achieve, who lead—people who aren't afraid to examine the status quo and turn it on its head. Here, we enthusiastically embrace new possibilities. We encourage big thinking. We take bold action. All of that ensures a business education that is real and relevant and rigorous—one that encourages each student's creativity and fosters the next big idea. Gies College of Business is where future leaders in business acquire the tools they need to unleash their potential.
