

2024 LL.M.

Guidelines for completing the electronic NY BOLE Certificate of Attendance Form

Credits awarded toward the degree: 24 or more

Attendance:

- a. Month and year you commenced LL.M. degree program: August 2023
- b. Month and year you completed all coursework for LL.M. Degree: May 2024
- c. Date of Graduation: 05/15/2024
- e. Did you complete your LL.M. degree within 24 months of matriculation: You should answer "YES" in this section.

Coursework:

- a. List the title and number of points of the course you took to satisfy the Professional Responsibility requirement.
- b. List LL.M. Legal Research and Writing - 2 points - if you took this course.
- c. American Legal Studies, Legal System: List Introduction to American Law - 2 points - if you took this course.
- d. & e. List the courses you took in the subjects tested on the NY Bar Exam, and in other substantive law courses. Check with your academic advisor in the Office of Graduate Degree Programs (OGP), if you need assistance in completing these sections.

Did you complete any courses as part of joint degree program: You should answer "NO" in this section.

Summer Credits: You should answer "NO" in this section.

Location and Distance Learning:

- a. Did you attend all courses, including clinics, externships and field placements, within the borders of the United States? You should answer "YES" in this section.
- b. Was any part of your LL.M. study completed by correspondence courses, on-line courses, courses offered on DVD or other media, or by other distance learning courses? You should answer "NO" in this section.