

Points Questions	3	2	1	0
(1) Does the event promote wellness and is it considered a healthy alternative?	The event promotes wellness and is considered a healthy alternative. Programs or events fall into one or more of the following wellness categories; (1) discourage the use of tobacco, alcohol, or any illegal drugs (2) address sexual health issues (3) encourage the well being of Baldwin Wallace students including (3a) mental health, (3b) fitness, (3c) nutrition and-or (3d) safety / or (4) provides a non-alcoholic social alternative	The event does not completely promote wellness and is considered a healthy alternative. Programs or events fall into one or more of the following wellness categories; (1) discourage the use of tobacco, alcohol, or any illegal drugs (2) address sexual health issues (3) encourage the well being of Baldwin Wallace students including (3a) mental health, (3b) fitness, (3c) nutrition and-or (3d) safety / or (4) provides a non-alcoholic social alternative	The event does not completely promote wellness and is not considered a healthy alternative. Programs or events fall into one or more of the following wellness categories; (1) discourage the use of tobacco, alcohol, or any illegal drugs (2) address sexual health issues (3) encourage the well being of Baldwin Wallace students including (3a) mental health, (3b) fitness, (3c) nutrition and-or (3d) safety / or (4) provides a non-alcoholic social alternative	The event does not promote wellness or is a healthy alternative.
(2) Will this program event be beneficial and impact many students?	A large number of students and/or faculty members will be impacted. The benefits of the program/event are clearly articulated.	A large number of students and/or faculty members will be impacted. The benefits of the program/event are not clearly articulated.	A small number of students and/or faculty members will be impacted. The benefits of the program/event are not clearly articulated.	A small number of students and/or faculty members will be impacted. The benefits of the program/event are not clearly articulated.

(3) Did a representative attend a HPGB meeting to discuss their events and is their application completed entirely and correctly?	The application is completed and all sections are filled out correctly. The application is permitted to have up to 2 minor errors. A representative was present and was able to answer all questions that were asked.	The application is completed and all sections are filled out correctly. The application is permitted to have up to 4 minor errors. A representative was present and was able to answer most questions that were asked.	The application is completed and all sections are filled out correctly. The application is permitted to have up to 6 minor errors. A representative was present and was able to answer some of the questions that were asked	The application is completed and all sections are filled out correctly. The application is permitted to have up to 8 minor errors. A representative was present and was not able to answer any of the questions that were asked.
(4) Is the budget report explained and accounted for and is the request reasonable and within the HPGB account?	The budget is fully accounted for and is fully explained. In addition effective management of funds will be used. Based on the needs the request is reasonable.	The budget is fully accounted for. In addition effective management of funds will be used. Based on the needs the request is reasonable.	The budget is fully accounted for. In addition effective management of funds will be used. Based on the needs the request is not completely reasonable.	The budget is not accounted for. Based on the needs the request is not reasonable.
(5) Did the applicant use or are they going to use effective advertising?	Very effective advertising has been or will be utilized and their strategy has been explained. The group plans on using flyers, social media and some other form of special advertising.	Effective advertising has been or will be utilized and their strategy has been explained. The group plans on using flyers and social media.	Advertising has been or will be utilized and their strategy has not been explained. The group plans on using flyers or social media.	Advertising will not be used in an effective manner.